FINANCIALS

Motion by Badgero, second by Larsen to approve the current month financials and accounts payable. AIF/MC

Schneider stated that revenues were right where they should be and discussed a few unanticipated expenses related to septic work at Graves Lodge and irrigation work needed at the soccer fields.

BOARD BUSINESS

Schneider stated that Smith was meeting with the designers, at the end of the month, to finalize details on the remaining disc golf course holes and that the course should be completed by the end of the year. He said that the irrigation system at the soccer fields had not been operating correctly and that there had been repairs needed to multiple sprinkler valves and heads. Schneider gave an update on a call that he had received from a group, not affiliated with AYSO, that was possibly interested in utilizing the soccer fields and said that he explained the process should they want to proceed.

duChemin complimented the City DPW for the help with a leak that occurred at the Centerline fields. He gave an update on potential extra funds that may be available from the townships for new block dugouts at the Centerline South Baseball Fields.
