NEW BUSINESS

Motion by Williams, second by Wight to approve land split for 571 Cooper Street. AIF/MC Goodin said that Schneider had been working with Jeremiah Corrigan at 571 Cooper Street for a number of weeks on the land split and required documentation and did not have any problems with the land split.

S. Faulkner discussed information in packets explaining various NEDO project updates. He gave an update on the Disc Golf Course and stated that Christian Healthcare Center hopes to break ground in the spring. Faulkner said that the Museum Board approved moving forward with starting construction this spring. He gave an update on a donor that will be working with a group from Newaygo High School on potential improvements to the Football and Track Fields. Faulkner said that Branding ideas would be presented at City Council next Monday.
